Music-Liberal Arts

Academic Curriculum Outline by Semester

1st Semester	2nd Semester	3rd Semester	4th Semester	5th Semester	6th Semester	7th Semester	8th Semester
1st Year		2nd Year		3rd Year		4th Year

Admission

Graduation

MUSIC

- Private lessons (Selected from Vocal Music, Piano, String Instruments, Wind Instruments, Percussion, Composition, Conducting, Japanese Music, Folk Music)
- Graduation Performance
- Ensemble (Selected from Accompaniment, Chamber Music, Choir, Wind-Instrumental Music, Orchestral Music, Opera, etc.)
- Music-related Subjects (Selected from Solfege, Harmony, Minor Lessons, Music History, Acoustics of Musical Instruments etc.)

LIBERAL ARTS

[English Skill Course]

Tutorial English
Academic Writing
Academic Reading
Presentation

- Business Writing
- Competency in English

[Liberal Arts Subjects — taught in English]

Humanities (Music and Art)	Music Literacy, Jazz, Popular Music, etc.
Social Science	International Relations I & II, Japanese Culture and Society, Cross-Cultural Communication, etc.
Natural Science	Psychology of Music, Music Therapy, etc.

- Graduation Thesis Seminar, Graduation Thesis

ELECTIVE COUSES

- Sophia University Credit Transfer Courses
- Employment Intensive Training Courses
- University-wide Common Elective Courses (Liberal Arts, Foreign Language and Basic Music Courses)

※ Students who excel in English or are already sufficiently proficient, may replace coursework under English skills with other subjects with approval from their academic adviser.
※ Tutorial English is designed to improve English communication skills in small class settings of four students.
※ An academic advisor is assigned to each student to help create a curriculum appropriate for each student according to the career path they aspire to after graduation.
※ Students may opt to study abroad for up to one year during the degree program.